

IDENTIFYING NEEDS & EXPECTATIONS OF INTERESTED PARTIES					ORGANIZATIONAL CONTEXT
No.	CONTEXT of the ORGANIZATION & INTERESTED PARTIES WORKSHEET RELATIONSHIP GROUP: Make the information more meaningful by grouping interested parties based on their relationship with the organization. Examples of interested parties based on their relationship with the organization by their: - Responsibility – investors, etc. - Influence – pressure groups, etc. - Proximity – neighbors, etc. - Dependency – employees, etc. - Representation – trade unions, etc. - Authority – regulators, etc.	RELEVANCE/NEEDS/EXPECTATION Now that you know who your interest parties are, it is time to identify their needs and expectations which are relevant to your management system.	POWER & INTEREST RANKING (PI-R): Consider their strength of interest and level of influence over your decisions and actions.	OBJECTIVE: Define the "intended results" are necessary to deliver to those relevant interested parties to reduce the risk that their needs and expectations are not met.	INTERNAL & EXTERNAL ISSUES (positive and negative) Internal issues are related to values, culture, knowledge, and performance. External issues arise from legal, technological, competitive, market, cultural, social, and economic environments (local, regional, national, or international).
	INTERESTED PARTY:	RELEVANT NEEDS/EXPECTATIONS	POWER & INTEREST RANKING (PI-R):	OBJECTIVE:	INTERNAL & EXTERNAL ISSUES (positive or negative)
1	Direct Customers (includes OEM and Non-OEM customers like Tier I's, etc.)	needs and expectations: Expects to supply goods and services on time with the right quality at the right price Establish a competitive price and/or remain competitive	Manage Closely	Deliver product on-time (per schedule)	Internal issue: Capacity for product production (backlog issues: capacity poor OEE, productivity, TPM, supply chain issues, etc.) AX12 rollout (positive) External issues: tbd
				Deliver product according to specification (good quality level)	Internal issue: poor root cause analysis, FMEA deficiencies, lack of defined drawings External issues: tbd
				Acheve a cost competitive product	Internal issues: Competitive advantage? Loss of patents -> creates loss of margin External issues: LCC / emerging markets
				Achieve customer scorecard targets	Internal issues: Implementation or transition issues to IATF 16949, resources (ex: Ford Q1, etc.), infrastructure
				Bring innovative products to the market (achieve a partnership that provides engineering solutions)
2	Federal	Compliance with 14001, ...
	State of Michigan
3	City of Auburn Hills, MI	needs and expectations: Follow codes & regulations (related to ISO 14001)	Manage Closely	Protect environment (ensure regulations are followed)	Internal issues: storing dunnage outside, External issue: don't pollute the local area
	Suppliers	needs and expectations: pay on-time, establish long-term partnership	Monitor	Note: need to add in something about new IATF requirements that drive us to develop our supply partners
4	Competitors	needs and expectations: need to stay ahead of our competitors	Manage Closely	METAL: Tecconex, Ideal, Caillau (higher temperature clamps, etc.) PLASTICS: Voss, Conti,
	Local companies
5	Banks
6	Unions	needs and expectations:
7	Registrars (certification bodies)	needs and expectations:
8	Press & Media?
9
10

	IZATION	CONTEXT of the ORGANIZATION & INTERESTED PARTIES WORKSHEET	RELEVANCE/NEEDS/EXPECTATION Now that you know who your interest parties are, it is time to identify their needs and expectations which are relevant to your management system.	POWER & INTEREST RANKING (PI-R): Consider their strength of interest and level of influence over your decisions and actions.	OBJECTIVE: Define the "intended results" are necessary to deliver to those relevant interested parties to reduce the risk that their needs and expectations are not met.	INTERNAL & EXTERNAL ISSUES (positive and negative) Internal issues are related to values, culture, knowledge, and performance. External issues arise from legal, technological, competitive,
		INTERESTED PARTY:	RELEVANT NEEDS/EXPECTATIONS	POWER & INTEREST RANKING (PI-R):	OBJECTIVE:	INTERNAL & EXTERNAL ISSUES (positive or negative)
1	Relationship Group: Internal	Employees	needs and expectations: a stable organization, good work environment, reward and recognition of their effort.	Keep Satisfied	Developing our employees, Recognizing, Rewardings Retain Employees, ESS Surveys, Open door policy, whistleblower, Core Values, PMP, bonus	Internal Issues: Lack of office space, inexperienced workforce, turnover/attrition (new hires), not a Tier I mentality, communication, training (onboarding, on-going) External issues: local competition,
2		Owner / Management Board	need and expectations: Need to be well informed of business activities. Expect the business to be highly profitable, offer good returns.	q	Meet shareprice, maximize EBITA	Internal issues: quality, delivery, etc.. External issues: Hybrid, electrification. e-mobility,
3		Supplier (Inter-company)	need and expectations: expects to get a detailed description of the materials you need.	Manage Closely	Ensure supplier receives detailed specification.	Internal issues: tbd External issues: tbd
4		Advisory Board	need and expectations: Achive Group Vision and meet budget requirements	Manage Closely	Meet budgetary requirements and strategic objectives	Internal issues: Onboarding / integration of M&A External issues: tbd
5
6
7
8
9
10

RISK ASSESSMENT
Priority Ratings 1=low or 5=High (Ref. Table below)			Risk & Opportunities
IMPACT	OCCURRENCE	Risk Rating	1. The organization plans and implements actions to address risk and opportunities then evaluated the effectiveness of the action taken. 2. Action taken are proportionate to the potential impact on product or service conformity. Options to address risk & opportunities can include: * Avoiding risk * Taking risk in order to pursue an opportunity * Eliminating the source of the risk * Changing the likely occurrence or serverity of the risk * Sharing the risk * Retaining risk by informed decision
1.How much could the internal or external issue IMPACT the organization's ability of meeting the interested parties objectives and/or intended results of QMS?	2. What is the likihood of the potential internal or external issue to OCCUR ?	(I) x (O)
RISK ASSESSMENT RATINGS			RECOMMENDED ACTION(S) TO ADDRESS RISK (w/ rating of...)
		0
		0
		0
		0
		0
		0
		0
		0
		0
		0
		0
		0

Mahindra building manufacturing plant in Auburn Hills -> will impact our ability to retain/recruit in area

Priority Ratings 1=low or 5=High (Ref. Table below)			Risk & Opportunities
IMPACT	OCCURRENCE	Risk Rating	1. The organization plans and implements actions to address risk and opportunities then evaluated the effectiveness of the action taken. 2. Action taken are proportionate to the potential impact on product or service conformity.
RISK ASSESSMENT RATINGS			RECOMMENDED ACTION(S) TO ADDRESS RISK (w/ rating of...)
2	2	4
		0	Ref. Vision 2025
		0
		0
		0
		0
		0
		0
		0

Pricing can be an issue between regions (not necessarily within the region)

